Subject: Resolution Approving and Authorizing Settlement of Pending Litigation Between Alexandra Coronado, Nola Farquharson and Prudence Jones and Miami-Dade County

RECOMMENDATION

It is recommended that the Board of County Commissioners ("Board") authorize settlement of the pending litigation between Alexandra Coronado, Nola Farquharson and Prudence Jones ("Plaintiffs") and Miami-Dade County ("County") on the terms and conditions specified in the attached Settlement Agreement subject to the approval of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development.

BACKGROUND

This case was brought against the County by three Plaintiffs, who are each participants in the County's Section 8 Housing Choice Voucher Program ("Section 8 Program"). The Plaintiffs allege that the County, through the Miami-Dade Housing Agency, engaged in a practice of denying Section 8 Housing voucher payments to recipients without notice and an opportunity for a hearing.

In an effort to resolve the litigation, the County initially met informally with the legal representatives of the Plaintiffs. Through these discussions the County Attorneys Office agreed to and presented an extensive training to MDHA's hearing officer and staff to ensure that they had a better understanding of the statutory and regulatory requirements regarding the proper notices to be sent to Section 8 tenants who are recommended for termination from the program, the types of evidence that the department must introduce at the hearing, and the process for conducting hearings. In addition, the County Attorney's Office worked closely with the hearing officer to ensure that each final hearing decision complies with the statutory and regulatory requirements of the program.

Because the parties could not reach an agreement regarding the Plaintiffs' claims for damages, they agreed to have this aspect of the case submitted to a mediator. As a result of the mediation, the parties have been able to reach an amicable settlement of all claims raised by the Plaintiffs.

The County agrees to pay the sum of $60,000.00 ("Settlement Fund") minus $16,944.00 for an overpayment owed by Plaintiff Prudence Jones. In an addition, the County has developed procedures approved by the Plaintiffs that will expedite the Section 8 process ensures that the County complies with all due process requirements. Finally, the parties agreed that each side will bear their own attorney's fees and costs and both the Plaintiffs and the County will execute releases. It is therefore recommended that this Board approve the settlement of the pending litigation with the Plaintiffs on the terms described herein and in the settlement agreement, subject to the approval of the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development.
