Substitute
Agenda Item No. 11(A)(5)

TO: Honorable Chairman Dennis C. Moss and Members, Board of County Commissioners

DATE: October 19, 2010

FROM: R. A. Cuevas, Jr.

SUBJECT: Resolution urging the Florida option to prohibit increases in the total property tax bill of homestead property of low and middle income

senior citizens

Resolution No. R-1055-10

This substitute differs from the original in that it places a ceiling on total homestead property taxes, not just assessed value; applies to low and middle income senior citizens rather than all senior citizens; ties eligibility to a recognition of the investment eligible senior citizens have made to local infrastructure measured by aggregate property taxes paid to the extent permitted by law; and clarifies that the proposal would be local option.

The accompanying resolution was prepared and placed on the agenda at the request of Prime Sponsor Vice-Chairman Jose "Pepe" Diaz.

RESOLUTION NO. R-1055-10

RESOLUTION URGING THE FLORIDA LEGISLATURE TO PASS A JOINT RESOLUTION THAT WOULD PROPOSE A CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT TO PROVIDE FOR A LOCAL OPTION TO PROHIBIT INCREASES IN THE TOTAL
PROPERTY TAX BILL OF HOMESTEAD PROPERTY OF
LOW AND MIDDLE INCOME SENIOR CITIZENS

WHEREAS, senior citizens retire to lower or often fixed incomes, and have few opportunities to increase their incomes; and

WHEREAS, the current economic downturn has hit senior citizens particularly hard; and

WHEREAS, Social Security payments did not have a cost of living increase this year for the first time in over two decades; and

WHEREAS, many senior citizens who thought they had saved enough money for retirement saw their investments plummet as the stock market declined; and

WHEREAS, senior citizens often have higher health care, insurance, and energy costs than their younger counterparts; and

WHEREAS, Florida law currently provides some property tax relief to senior citizens allowing them to remain in their homes despite rising property values and property taxes; and

WHEREAS, options are available to some senior citizens under Florida law to defer property taxes; and

WHEREAS, homeowners 65 years of age and older also can receive an additional homestead exemption if they do not surpass certain household income limits that is in addition to the homestead exemptions available to all homestead property owners; and

>>WHEREAS, the additional homestead exemption for low income senior citizens currently is available if a senior citizen's annual adjusted household income does not exceed $25,780; and<<<sup>1</sup>

WHEREAS, the household income limitations to qualify for the additional homestead exemption for low income senior citizens is tied to the Consumer Price Index (CPI) pursuant to Florida law, and increases or decreases each year with changes in the CPI; and

WHEREAS, senior citizens with a homestead exemption also benefit from the Save Our Homes cap, which limits increases in the assessed value of the property each year by 3 percent or the CPI, whichever is lower; and

>>WHEREAS, the CPI was set at 2.7 percent for 2010, meaning the assessed value of homestead property could increase no more than 2.7 percent for the current year pursuant to Save Our Homes; and

WHEREAS, in many cases, the market value of homestead property declined in the current year, but many low and middle income senior citizens nonetheless saw the assessed value of their homestead properties increase by 2.7 percent because of the Recapture Rule, which required property appraisers to increase the prior year's assessed value of a homestead property by 2.7 percent, whenever the assessed value is lower than the market value; and<<

WHEREAS, despite the Save Our Homes cap, the cumulative effect of small annual increases in assessed value over many years has lead to significantly higher property taxes for senior citizens who have lived in their homes for many years; and <sup>1</sup> The differences between the substitute and the original item are indicated as follows: words stricken through and/or [[double bracketed]] shall be deleted, words underscored and/or >>double arrowed<< constitute the amendment proposed.

WHEREAS, >>low and middle income<< senior citizens are still in need of property tax relief particularly during the current economic downturn; and

WHEREAS, some states, >>including Connecticut, Illinois and New Jersey,<< have prohibited increases in the assessed value of homestead property of senior citizens receiving homestead exemption >>and whose annual income does not exceed certain thresholds, essentially freezing or capping the assessed values of low and middle income senior citizens' homes; and<<

WHEREAS, a constitutional amendment approved by the Florida voters would be necessary >>to prohibit increases in the total property tax bill of homestead property of low and middle income<< senior citizens; and

>>WHEREAS, many senior citizens with modest incomes nonetheless exceed the current income limit of $25,780 for the additional homestead exemption for low income senior citizens; and<<

WHEREAS, the Florida Legislature has the authority to place such constitutional amendments on the statewide ballot,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF MIAMI-DADE COUNTY, FLORIDA, that this Board:

Section 1. Urges the Florida Legislature to pass a joint resolution that would propose a constitutional amendment >>to provide a local option to prohibit increases in, and impose a ceiling on, the total property tax bill of homestead property of low and middle income senior citizens whose annual income does not exceed $50,000, with an escalator to account for inflation in future years. To the extent permitted by law, eligibility for such a property tax ceiling shall include a recognition of the investment eligible senior citizens have made to local infrastructure measured by aggregate property taxes paid.<<

~~[[increases in the assessed value of homestead property of senior citizens.]]~~

Section 2. Directs the Clerk of the Board to transmit a certified copy of this resolution to the Governor, Senate President, House Speaker, and the Chair and Members of the Miami-Dade County State Legislative Delegation.

Section 3. Directs the County's state lobbyists to advocate against the legislation set forth in Section 1 above, and authorizes and directs that the Office of Intergovernmental Affairs to include this item in the 2011 State Legislative Package.
