Miami-Dade Economic Advocacy Trust (MDEAT) New Action Committee Appointments

Miami-Dade Economic Advocacy Trust (MDEAT) is a Miami-Dade County agency charged with ensuring economic parity between Targeted Urban Areas (TUAs) and the community-at-large. It is governed by a Board of Trustees and stimulates economic growth through advocacy and socio-economic programs.

MDEAT is seeking new action committee members to fill vacancies on its Economic Development Action Committee (EDAC), Housing Advocacy Committee (HAC) and Youth Action Committee (YAC).

Ideal candidates are seasoned, strategic thinkers with successful track records in housing, economic development, business development, banking, finance, criminal justice, marketing or socio-economic Advocacy law. They will have reputations of integrity and community service as well as possess knowledge, skills and expertise relevant to the position for which they are applying.

The respective Action Committee will review applications, interview candidates and make recommendations to the MDEAT Board for appointments.

Interested individuals with the time and commitment to meet the demands of the committee appointment may download an application at www.miamidade.gov/EconomicAdvocacyTrust or pick-up an application Monday-Friday between 9 a.m.- 5 p.m. at the following location:

Miami-Dade Economic Advocacy Trust, Stephen P. Clark Center, 111 NW 1st Street, Suite 2032 (20th Floor) Miami, FL 33128.

Mail or submit completed applications to the aforementioned address. The deadline is Friday, February 28, 2020 by 5 p.m. For more information, contact MDEAT at 305-375- 5661 or MEDATInfo@miamidade.gov with "Action Committee" in the subject line.
