RESOLUTION NO. _____

RESOLUTION CONDEMNING THE RECENT ACTIONS OF THE CODE PINK ORGANIZATION, LEFTIST INFLUENCERS SYMPATHETIC TO THE CASTRO REGIME, AND OTHERS THAT SEEK TO LEGITIMIZE THE COMMUNIST PARTY OF CUBA, PROP UP THE CASTRO REGIME, OR ENCOURAGE VIOLATIONS OF FEDERAL LAW PERTAINING TO COMMERCE IN AND WITH CUBA

WHEREAS, for over half a century, the Cuban people have lived under a repressive communist regime that has failed to respect fundamental freedoms, crushed political opposition, and denied the people of their right to self-government; and

WHEREAS, the Cuban government functions as a one-party political system, with all power wielded by the Communist Party of Cuba (“PCC”); and

WHEREAS, for the vast majority of Cuba’s time as a communist nation, the PCC has been under the control of brothers Fidel Alejandro Castro Ruz and Raúl Modesto Castro Ruz; and

WHEREAS, despite the death of Fidel Castro in 2016 and the retirement of Raúl Castro in 2021, the PCC has continued its repressive rule under the watch of the regime’s chosen successor, Miguel Díaz-Canel; and

WHEREAS, a significant number of Miami-Dade County residents are refugees from Cuba or the descendants of refugees who fled the Castro regime; and

WHEREAS, in recent years, Cuba has faced increasingly serious shortages of food, fuel, and other resources; and

WHEREAS, the progressively dire situation has led to greater instability within the island nation; and

WHEREAS, there is now a substantial likelihood that, given the mismanagement by the Cuban regime and the rapidly deteriorating situation in the country, the Cuban people will successfully take back power from the PCC; and

WHEREAS, notwithstanding the alleged efforts by the Cuban government to limit the flow of information, the worsening conditions within the country have become evident to the global community; and

WHEREAS, as a result of foreign policy decisions by the Trump administration as well as recent global events, it is reported that Cuba is receiving substantially reduced support from oil-producing countries that had previously aided the regime; and

WHEREAS, in March of this year, a far-left activist organization known as ‘Code Pink’ traveled to Cuba to stage a demonstration in support of the Cuban government; and

WHEREAS, included in the participants were certain well known leftist influencers, including Hasan Piker, a popular Twitch streamer; and

WHEREAS, reports indicate that participants of the Code Pink trip stayed in luxury hotels powered by generators, in contrast to the widespread electricity shortages experienced by the Cuban population; and

WHEREAS, the participants used their platform to support the Castro regime and to suggest support for violation of federal laws pertaining to commerce in and with Cuba, including the Cuban Liberty and Democratic Solidarity (Libertad) Act of 1996 (Helms-Burton Act); and

WHEREAS, the Board strongly disapproves of actions that appear to support or legitimize the Castro regime or support violation of federal restrictions on trade with Cuba; and

WHEREAS, the Board reaffirms its unwavering support for the Cuban people in their pursuit of freedom, democracy, and respect for their basic liberties,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF MIAMI-DADE COUNTY, FLORIDA, that this Board condemns the recent actions of the Code Pink organization, leftist influencers sympathetic to the Castro regime, and others that seek to legitimize the Communist Party of Cuba, prop up the Castro regime, or encourage violations of federal law pertaining to commerce in and with Cuba.
