RESOLUTION NO. R-685-20

RESOLUTION CALLING A COUNTYWIDE SPECIAL ELECTION IN MIAMI-DADE COUNTY, FLORIDA, TO BE HELD IN CONJUNCTION WITH A GENERAL ELECTION ON TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 3, 2020, FOR THE PURPOSE OF SUBMITTING TO THE ELECTORS OF MIAMI-DADE COUNTY THE QUESTION OF WHETHER TO AMEND THE HOME RULE CHARTER TO REQUIRE THAT WHEN THE MAYOR OR MEMBER OF THE COUNTY COMMISSION RESIGNS PROSPECTIVELY TO RUN FOR ANOTHER OFFICE THE VACANCY WILL BE FILLED BY ELECTION DURING THE PRIMARY AND GENERAL ELECTION RATHER THAN BY APPOINTMENT OR BY SUBSEQUENT SPECIAL ELECTION

WHEREAS, Florida’s “resign-to-run” law prohibits an elected officer from qualifying as a candidate for another state, district, county, or municipal public office where the term or any part thereof runs concurrently with his or her current office without resigning from the office he or she presently holds; and

WHEREAS, the resign-to-run law permits such resignation to become effective no later than the date the officer would take office, if elected, or the date the officer’s successor is required to take office, provided such resignation is irrevocable and submitted at least ten days prior to the first day of qualifying for the office he or she intends to seek; and

WHEREAS, for all state elective offices, the resign-to-run law provides that the resignation creates a vacancy in office to be filled by election as if the officer’s term were otherwise scheduled to expire; and

WHEREAS, for a charter county office or elective municipal office, the resign-to-run law provides that the vacancy created by the officer's resignation may be filled for that portion of the officer's unexpired term in a manner provided by the respective charter, and a charter county office or elective municipal office is deemed vacant upon the effective date of the resignation submitted by the official in his or her letter of resignation; and

WHEREAS, section 1.07 of the Miami-Dade County Home Rule Charter (Charter) currently requires that, upon a vacancy in the office of Mayor or an office of the County Commission, the County Commission must decide within 30 days of the vacancy whether to appoint a replacement or call a special election to fill the vacancy; and

WHEREAS, the Charter requires that, if the County Commission decides to hold a special election to fill a vacancy in the office of Mayor or an office of the County Commission for the remainder of the unexpired term of office created by the prospective resignation of such officer effective after the General Election pursuant to the resign-to-run law, such special election may not be held in conjunction with the Primary and General Elections; and

WHEREAS, holding a separate stand-alone election to fill a vacancy in the office of Mayor or an office of the County Commission can cost approximately $1,000,000.00 and result in a lower voter turnout than a Primary or General Election; and

WHEREAS, this Board believes that amending the Charter to provide that when a vacancy will be created by the irrevocable resignation of the Mayor or a member of the Board effective at a later date in accordance with the resign-to-run law, such vacancy for the remainder of the unexpired term of office should be filled by an election held during the Primary and General Elections as if the resigning officer's term were otherwise scheduled to expire; and

WHEREAS, the Board desires to allow the electors of Miami-Dade County the opportunity to express their will on the question of whether to amend the Charter to allow elections for vacancies created by prospective resignation in accordance with the resign-to-run law to be filled by election during the Primary and General Elections,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF MIAMI-DADE COUNTY, FLORIDA, that:

SECTION 1.07. VACANCIES IN THE OFFICE OF MAYOR OR COUNTY COMMISSIONER.

Any vacancy in the office of Mayor or the members of the Board shall be filled by majority vote of the remaining members of the Board within 30 days, or the Board shall call an election to be held not more than 90 days thereafter to fill the vacancy. The qualification period for such election shall be the first 10 days after the call of the election and any runoff election shall be held within 30 days of the certification of election results requiring a runoff. The person chosen to fill the office vacated must at the time of appointment meet the residence requirements for the office to which such person is appointed. A person appointed shall serve only until the next county-wide election. A person elected shall serve for the remainder of the unexpired term of office. If a majority of the members of the Board should become appointed rather than elected to office, then the Board shall call an election to be held not more than 90 days thereafter to permit the registered electors to elect commissioners to succeed the appointed commissioners; appointed commissioners may succeed themselves unless otherwise prohibited by the Charter. The qualification period for such election shall be the first 10 days after the call of the election and any runoff election shall be held within 30 days of the certification of election results requiring a runoff. If a county-wide election is scheduled to be held within 180 days from the date on which the majority of the members of the Board become appointive, the Board may elect to defer the required election until the scheduled countywide election.

>>Notwithstanding the foregoing, a vacancy in the office of Mayor or the members of the Board which will be created as a result of an irrevocable resignation to run for another office that is effective after the Primary or General Election in accordance with state law shall be filled by election as if the officer's term were otherwise scheduled to expire. A person elected to fill such vacancy shall take office on the effective date of the resigning officer's resignation and serve for the remainder of the unexpired term of office.<<
