RESOLUTION NO. _____ R-205-21

RESOLUTION CODESIGNATING THAT PORTION OF SW 93RD COURT FROM SW 24TH STREET (CORAL WAY) TO SW 32ND STREET AS “LAURA SCHWARTZENBERGER WAY”

WHEREAS, FBI Special Agent Laura Schwartzenberger, along with her colleague FBI Special Agent Daniel Alfin, were killed in the line of duty on February 2, 2021 in Sunrise, Florida, while serving a federal search warrant in a child pornography investigation; and

WHEREAS, Laura Schwartzenberger joined the FBI in 2005 and first worked in the Albuquerque Field Office; and

WHEREAS, in 2007, she became the first—and remains the only—female FBI SWAT team member in Albuquerque, and in 2010, she transferred to Miami where she joined the Violent Crimes Against Children Squad; and

WHEREAS, Schwartzenberger was passionate about keeping children safe and protecting them from online predators, often giving talks to parents on the topic; and

WHEREAS, she gave presentations on sex extortion and internet safety in middle school auditoriums, neighborhood backyards, and even a living room packed with a girls’ softball team; and

WHEREAS, in one of her biggest cases, Schwartzenberger was the lead agent in a sex extortion case that put an online predator in prison for 50 years after he posed as a teenage girl to induce hundreds of boys to share private images of themselves; and

WHEREAS, she had such a profound impact on the parents of some of the victims that when they found out that she had been killed in the line of duty, they immediately sent their condolences to the FBI; and

WHEREAS, Schwartzenberger made the ultimate sacrifice trying to keep children safe; and

WHEREAS, at her memorial service at Hard Rock Stadium on February 6, 2021, FBI Director Christopher Wray said about Schwartzenberger, “I know there is much sadness today. And that sadness will never fully disappear. But we can find joy knowing that Laura brought hope where there was only despair. We can find joy knowing that she brought light into some of the darkest places, and that she died as she lived—making a difference, serving her community, and keeping kids safe. We can find joy in her strength, her laughter, and her legacy. And in the fact that the FBI today is better and stronger because of what Laura gave to all of us.”; and

WHEREAS, Schwartzenberger is survived by her husband Jason and two sons, Gavin and Damon; and

WHEREAS, this Board would like to honor the memory and heroic sacrifice of Special Agent Laura Schwartzenberger by codesignating that portion of SW 93rd Court from SW 24th Street (Coral Way) to SW 32nd Street as “Laura Schwartzenberger Way”; and

WHEREAS, that portion of SW 93rd Court from SW 24th Street (Coral Way) to SW 32nd Street is a County-maintained road located in unincorporated Miami-Dade County; and

WHEREAS, this proposed codesignation is located in County Commission District 10,
