Memorandum

Date: May 4, 2021

To: Honorable Chairman Jose “Pepe” Diaz
and Members, Board of County Commissioners

From: Daniella Levine Cava
Mayor

Subject: Selection of Newspaper for Publication of Delinquent Tangible Personal and Real Property Tax Lists

Recommendation

It is recommended that the Board of County Commissioners approve the attached Resolution designating Miami Daily Business Review as the newspaper for publication of the 2021 lists of delinquent tangible personal property taxes, delinquent real property taxes and non-ad valorem assessments such as improvement liens and special assessments pertaining to the 2020 tax roll in accordance with Section 197.402 of the Florida Statutes and Rule 12D-13.036 of the Florida Administrative Code.

Scope

This action is countywide in scope.

Delegated Authority

There is no delegated authority for this item.

Fiscal Impact/Funding Source

The fiscal impact to the County is neutral. The cost of the advertising delinquent property taxes is paid by the Tax Collector at the time of advertising and is recovered from delinquent taxpayers at the time taxes are paid or when tax certificates are sold.

Track Record/Monitor

Peter Cam is the Tax Collector and is responsible for providing advertising data to Miami Daily Business Review and proofing the advertisements for accuracy before they go to print.

Background

The rate of real and tangible personal property tax collection directly impacts the ability of state, regional and local taxing authorities such as municipalities, the School Board and Miami-Dade County to deliver services. The collection of the 2020 real property and tangible personal property taxes began on November 1, 2020 and taxes become delinquent on April 1, 2021. Florida Statutes require the Tax Collector to issue warrants and to sell tax certificates to ensure the continued funding of essential governmental services provided by the various government taxing authorities authorized to levy and impose taxes. If taxes are not paid by May 31, 2021, tax certificates for real property taxes will be sold starting June 1, 2021 and tax warrants may be issued for tangible personal property at any time after delinquency.

Sub-Section 197.402(3) of the Florida Statutes provides that the list of delinquent tangible personal property taxpayers and the amount due by each, shall be published once within 45 days of the taxes becoming delinquent and that the list for delinquent real property taxes shall be advertised once each week for three consecutive weeks prior to the Tax Certificate Sale. In addition, Section 18-14 of the Miami-Dade County Code, Section 197.363 of the Florida Statutes and Section 197.3632 of the Florida Statutes require the advertisement of delinquent non-ad valorem assessments and improvement liens collected on the tax bill in the same manner as delinquent real property taxes.

Section 50.011 of the Florida Statutes requires the delinquent tangible personal property tax and delinquent real property tax advertisements be placed in a newspaper that is published at least once a week, contains at least 25 percent of its words in English, is available for sale to the public and is generally available to the public for the publication of official or other notices. Newspapers that meet these statutory requirements were identified, invited to bid and are listed below:

- Miami Today
- Miami Daily Business Review
- Miami New Times
- The Miami Herald
- The Miami Times

Only Miami Daily Business Review responded this year whose bid is as follows:

Delinquent tangible personal property taxes	$ 3,202.00
Delinquent real property taxes	$ 52,802.00
TOTAL	$ 56,004.00

Miami Daily Business Review has experience in legal advertising having published the County’s delinquent tangible personal property tax and delinquent real property tax advertisements in previous years. Miami Daily Business Review also has data processing capabilities that provide efficient and reliable interfaces with the County data processing systems thereby enabling last-minute additions and deletions to the advertisement. These are key factors, coupled with Miami Daily Business Review experience, to avoid delays that could result in the invalidation of the annual Tax Certificate Sale, which generated more than $230 million of revenues for the local taxing authorities last year. The cost of advertising delinquent real property taxes is recovered at the time the tax certificates are sold and are ultimately borne by the delinquent taxpayers. Having previously published the voluminous delinquent tax listings (more than 300 newspaper pages), Miami Daily Business Review has demonstrated its ability to successfully complete this undertaking.
