RESOLUTION NO. _____ R-840-21

RESOLUTION EXPRESSING THE BOARD'S SYMPATHY
AND CONDOLENCES TO THE FAMILIES OF THE 13
MEMBERS OF THE UNITED STATES ARMED FORCES
KILLED IN AFGHANISTAN ON AUGUST 26, 2021

WHEREAS, on Thursday, August 26, 2021, a terrorist attack at the Hamid Karzai International Airport in Kabul, Afghanistan claimed the lives of 13 members of the United States Armed Forces and scores of the Afghan civilians that those United States service personnel were there to protect; and

WHEREAS, among the fallen were members of the United States Army ("USA"), United States Marine Corps ("USMC"), and United States Navy ("USN"); and

WHEREAS, the fallen included:

- USMC Lance Corporal David L. Espinoza, 20, of Rio Bravo, Texas, who was described by his mother, Elizabeth Holguin, and stepfather, Victor Manuel Dominguez, as a "great kid" and a "great guy, a great guy," noting that they were "very proud of him";
- USMC Sergeant Nicole L. Gee, 23, of Sacramento, California, who showed immense pride in the work she was accomplishing in Afghanistan, posting a photograph of herself on social media, just days before the attack, in which she was caring for a baby at the Hamid Karzai International Airport, captioning the photograph with "I love my job";

- USMC Staff Sergeant Darin T. Hoover, 31, of Salt Lake City, Utah, whose father described him as his hero and who was honored by Utah Governor Spencer Cox for his “tremendous bravery and commitment to his country”;
- USA Staff Sergeant Ryan C. Knauss, 23, of Corryton, Tennessee, whose stepmother, Linnae Knauss, described him as a “super-smart hilarious young man,” whose grandfather, Wayne Knauss, described him as “a motivated young man who loved his country,” and whose wife, Alena Knauss, expressed that neither she nor her late husband would have regrets about the manner in which he died, because his service in the Armed Forces was “the ultimate honor he could give back to his country”;
- USMC Corporal Hunter Lopez, 22, of Indio, California, who is the son of two Riverside County Sheriff’s Department officers, Captain Hernan Lopez and Deputy Alicia Lopez, and who planned on following in his parents’ footsteps when he returned from his deployment, having participated in the department’s explorer program while he was in high school;
- USMC Corporal Rylee J. McCollum, 20, of Jackson, Wyoming, recently married and expecting his first child, who was described by his sister, Cheyenne, as a person who “touched everybody’s heart” and, had he not died while living his dream of serving the United States as a Marine, was “going to be the best dad”;
- USMC Lance Corporal Dylan R. Merola, 20, of Rancho Cucamonga, California, who was described by his mother, Cheryl Merola, as “one of the best kids ever,” who “would give anything for anybody”;

- USMC Lance Corporal Kareem Nikoui, 20, of Norco, California, who according to his father, Steve Nikoui, felt “no hesitation” in being called to duty and was credited with rescuing three families in Kabul and had returned to a crowd to rescue a child when the attack took place;
- USMC Corporal Daegan W. Page, 23, of Omaha Nebraska, whose family remembered him as one who had a “tough outer shell and giant heart” and who planned on going to trade school to become a lineman after his enlistment ended;
- USMC Sergeant Johanny Rosario Pichardo, 25, of Lawrence, Massachusetts, whose mother described her as a vibrant young person who wanted to give back to the community;
- USMC Corporal Humberto A. Sanchez, 22, of Logansport, Indiana, who was described by the principal of his high school, Matt Jones, as “a bright, athletic young man who was popular, well-liked by his soccer teammates, classmates, and teachers” and was “honored to be putting on the Marine uniform and serving his country”;
- USMC Lance Corporal Jared M. Schmitz, 20, of Saint Charles, Missouri, whose father described him as “my baby boy . . . my son . . . my marine . . . my warrior . . . my soul,” who would never be forgotten as his hero; and
- USN Hospitalman Maxton W. Soviak, 22, of Berlin Heights, Ohio, whose family described him as “a wonderful son who loved his family, his community, and was proud to serve in the [United States] Navy” and whose former high school teacher, Vince Ragnoni, described him as always smiling and “good for pulling shenanigans” and “get[ting] other people to laugh”; and

WHEREAS, this Board desires to pay its respects to each of these fallen members of the United States Armed Forces who, in the words of President Joseph R. Biden, “gave their lives last week to save tens of thousands,”

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF MIAMI-DADE COUNTY, FLORIDA, that this Board:

Section 1. Expresses its sympathy and condolences on the passing of the members of the United States Armed Forces—USMC Lance Corporal David L. Espinoza; USMC Sergeant Nicole L.
