WHEREAS, Implementing Order 3-38 authorizes the County Mayor to enter into pilot projects and product demonstration agreements with prospective County vendors for the purpose of testing and evaluating technology, products, and services; and

WHEREAS, such agreements must: (1) be for a period not to exceed 12 months from the initiation of the pilot project or demonstration; (2) be provided at no cost to the County with the exception of any ordinary cost for County employees or consultants to review such technology, products or services; (3) not contain any exclusive dealing, in-kind or advertising commitments by the County; (4) provide for indemnification of the County; (5) provide for County ownership of any data generated during the testing and observation period; and (6) be terminable at will by the County; and

WHEREAS, Miami-Dade County is committed to understanding, evaluating, and implementing innovative technology, emerging products, and efficient services to modernize the County's various systems and services to the public; and

WHEREAS, vendors frequently offer their innovative processes, products, and services at no charge to the County on a trial basis; and

WHEREAS, LJ Yodock & Associates, LLC (“Yodock”) is a company that has developed products, such as the JoJo Block, for flood prevention and shoreline stabilization; and

WHEREAS, Yodock claims that the JoJo Block is a flood barrier that is easily assembled and cleaned, and can be deployed rapidly; and

WHEREAS, Yodock further claims that the JoJo Block flood barrier is available in various configurations, including a configuration that reduces the amount of sand that blows from shorelines into populated areas; and

WHEREAS, additionally, Yodock claims that the JoJo Block can stabilize or create marshes and wetlands; and

WHEREAS, this Board desires for the County administration to test and observe the JoJo Block offered by Yodock on a short-term basis in accordance with Implementing Order 3-38 to determine whether this product would be beneficial to Miami-Dade County and its residents; and
