Subject: Waiving Any Actual or Potential Conflict of Interest Arising from Sheriff Gary Raney Serving as Independent Jail Compliance Director in United States of America v. Miami-Dade County, et al.

Recommendation

It is recommended that the Board of County Commissioners (Board) waive any actual or potential conflict of interest arising from Sheriff Gary Raney serving as the Independent Jail Compliance Director for the Consent Agreement and Settlement Agreement (Agreements) in United States of America v. Miami-Dade County, et al., Southern District of Florida Case No. 13-cv-21570, while also being involved as an expert or a monitor in other jurisdictions, including as an expert for the United States Department of Justice (DOJ) in other actions.

Background

In 2013, Miami-Dade County (County) entered into a Consent Agreement and Settlement Agreement with the DOJ in United States of America v. Miami-Dade County, et al., Southern District of Florida Case No. 13-cv-21570, stemming from the DOJ's investigation into Miami-Dade County's correctional facilities in April 2008, pursuant to the Civil Rights for Institutionalized Persons Act (CRIPA). The County has made significant improvements since 2013, including the creation of the Mental Health Treatment Center to house acute mental health inmates, the installation of over 2,300 surveillance video cameras, the implementation of enhanced training modules such as the Corrections Crisis Intervention Team, the establishment of a Compliance Director and Chief Compliance Officer, and enhanced collaboration with the Miami-Dade Police Department in investigations. In an effort to reach substantial compliance by October 31, 2023, with the remaining provisions, the DOJ and County developed a Stipulated Order which required approval by the Board. On January 17, 2023, the Board of County Commissioners adopted Resolution No. R-21-23 appointing Sheriff Gary Raney as the Compliance Director and approving the Stipulated Order Regarding Appointment of Independent Jail Compliance Director. The Stipulated Order was approved by the federal court and details the various responsibilities of the Compliance Director including that MDCR achieves substantial compliance with each provision of the Agreements on a timely basis, takes all necessary steps to implement the Agreements, and develops an action plan and provides reports to the DOJ and federal monitors.

Sheriff Raney is a criminal justice professional with extensive experience in federal monitoring of jails and providing technical assistance in use of force, in-custody death, duty of care, and jail policies and procedures. As a subject-matter expert, DOJ has requested that Sheriff Raney serve as an expert consultant in a CRIPA investigation in Fulton County, Georgia, and that the County waive any actual or potential conflicts of interest arising from Sheriff Raney's involvement and roles in multiple matters. Sheriff Raney's significant experience and approach in federal monitoring has been essential to the County's efforts to achieve substantial compliance with the remaining provisions and to foster continuous improvements to the County's Jail system.

Scope

The impact of this item is countywide in nature.

Fiscal Impact/Funding Source

There is no fiscal impact related to the waiver of conflict of interest.

Track Record/Monitor

Chief Compliance Officer Kim Bones will track and monitor this item.

Delegation of Authority

The County Mayor or County Mayor's designee is authorized to represent to the Department of Justice that the County has agreed to waive any actual or potential conflict of interest involving Sheriff Gary Raney serving as an expert for the DOJ in other matters while serving as the Compliance Director for the Agreements.
