RESOLUTION NO. _____ R-922-24

RESOLUTION CODESIGNATING, BY A THREE-FIFTHS VOTE OF BOARD MEMBERS PRESENT, THAT PORTION OF NORTHWEST 69TH STREET BETWEEN NORTHWEST 22ND AVENUE AND NORTHWEST 27TH AVENUE AS “H.T. SMITH STREET”

WHEREAS, H.T. Smith, Jr. (“Smith”) was born on April 10, 1947, in Miami, Florida; and

WHEREAS, a graduate of Miami’s public schools, Smith graduated with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Mathematics from Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University in 1968, following which he was commissioned as an officer in the United States Army, where he served a tour of duty in the Vietnam War; and

WHEREAS, on his return home, Smith enrolled in the University of Miami School of Law, from where he graduated with his Juris Doctor degree in 1973; and

WHEREAS, Smith began his legal career by blazing new trails, first as Miami-Dade County’s first African-American assistant public defender, then as the County’s first African-American assistant county attorney; and

WHEREAS, thereafter, Smith continued blazing new trails as he entered private practice as Miami’s first Black-owned law firm practicing in downtown Miami; and

WHEREAS, for the past 51 years, Smith has practiced law in Miami, specializing in criminal defense, civil rights and personal injury; and

WHEREAS, Smith was voted the Top Trial Lawyer for 2017 by the 4,500 members of the Dade County Bar Association, listed in The Best Lawyers in America for over 20 years, listed in Florida Super Lawyers, selected as one of the Top 10 Trial lawyers of the Year by the National Law Journal, is rated AV Preeminent by Martindale-Hubbell, and has been recognized by the National Law Journal as one of the top trial lawyers in America; and

WHEREAS, Smith was the founding President of the Black Lawyers Association of Miami-Dade County (now known as the Wilkie D. Ferguson, Jr. Bar Association), where he served four terms as its President, and a Founding member of the Gwen S. Cherry Black Women Lawyers Association; and

WHEREAS, Smith served as President of the 20,000 member National Bar Association, which is the oldest and largest bar association in America for people of color, and also of the Virgil Hawkins Florida Chapter of the National Bar Association; and

WHEREAS, Smith led the hugely successful BOYCOTT MIAMI Campaign — the Quiet Riot – for 1,000 days in response to local politicians snubbing Nelson Mandela when he visited Miami in 1990; and

WHEREAS, this effort led to the development of the first African American owned convention quality hotel in America – built on the ocean on Miami Beach; 25 full-tuition hospitality management scholarships at Florida International University in perpetuity; and many other economic and political benefits for people of color; and

WHEREAS, in a letter to the National Bar Association, former President of South Africa, the late Nelson Mandela, once wrote: “We join your members in paying special tribute to your retiring President, H.T. Smith, whose name became well-known for his consistent and courageous contribution and support for the struggle of our people against apartheid. We wish H.T., well, we are confident that wherever injustice and racism raise their ugly heads, H.T. will be there to raise his powerful voice of protest and resistance”; and

WHEREAS, in 1995, Smith, with the strong support of the South Florida Super Bowl Host Committee, local businesses, firms and organizations, raised $4 million to construct an NFL Youth Education Town (YET) Center at Gwen Cherry Park, which provides after school and summer programming, computer literacy, financial literacy, music and media training, arts and crafts, and all types of sporting activities for approximately 500 kids daily; and

WHEREAS, Smith was a founding board member of OUR KIDS of Miami-Dade and Monroe Counties, which provides support and services to all abused, abandoned and neglected children in Miami-Dade and Monroe counties; and

WHEREAS, Smith has served as Chairman of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit Judicial Nominating Commission, member of the Florida Sentencing Guidelines Commission, as a member of the Board of Directors of Legal Services of Greater Miami, and as a member of the Third District Court of Appeal Judicial Nominating Commission; and

WHEREAS, also in 2003, Smith was tapped to become the first Director of the Trial Advocacy Program at Florida International University (FIU) College of Law, where, under his leadership, the Trial Advocacy Program and the Mock Trial Team have gained statewide recognition as one of the best among Florida’s 10 law schools; and

WHEREAS, in 2005, Smith joined the Board of Trustees of the University of Miami in where he has served as Vice-Chairman, as well as Chairman of the Student Affairs, Membership and Governance Committees; and

WHEREAS, in 2006, the FIU student body honored Smith by presenting him with the prestigious “Spirit Award” for his consistent commitment to excellence as a legal educator, and the Black Law Student Association (BLSA) Chapter at FIU College of Law named its chapter in his honor; and

WHEREAS, Smith has received the Top Scholar Award and the FIU Medallion, and the Pioneer Award from the College of Law; and

WHEREAS, in recognition of Smith’s decades of honorable and outstanding service to this community, the University of Miami named its Student Services Building in Smith’s and Harold Long, Jr.’s honor; the Eleventh Judicial Circuit Historical Society and the Wilkie D. Ferguson, Jr. Bar Association named him a Legal Legend; the Dade County Bar Association awarded him its prestigious David W. Dyer Professionalism Award and its Icon Award; the National Bar Association inducted him into the National Bar Association’s Hall of Fame and awarded him the Gertrude E. Rush Achievement Award; Legal Services of Greater Miami named an advocacy fellowship in his honor, and the Miami-Dade Chamber of Commerce named its highest award in his honor; and

WHEREAS, in addition to his many professional achievements, Smith is the proud father of three daughters – Wyndi, Katrell, and Talia; and

WHEREAS, this Board wishes to recognize Smith’s outstanding contributions to this County, by naming that portion of Northwest 69th Street between Northwest 22nd Avenue and Northwest 27th Avenue as “H.T. Smith Street”; and

WHEREAS, that portion of Northwest 69th Street between Northwest 24th Avenue and Northwest 27th Avenue is a County-maintained road in County Commission District 2; and

WHEREAS, that portion of Northwest 69th Street between Northwest 22nd Avenue and Northwest 24th Avenue is an undedicated road that runs through Gwen Cherry Park, which is maintained by the County and is in County Commission District 2; and

WHEREAS, Rule 9.02(d) of the Board's Rules of Procedure provides that the Commission may, by a three-fifths vote of Board members present, name a County road, facility or property after a living individual who has not served as an elected official within the past five years and who "has made a direct, significant lifetime contribution to this community,"

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF MIAMI-DADE COUNTY, FLORIDA, that:

Section 1. The foregoing recitals are hereby incorporated into this resolution and this Board finds that H.T. Smith has made a direct, significant lifetime contribution to this community pursuant to Rule 9.02(d).
