From: Daniella Levine Cava
Mayor

Subject: Fiscal Impact Statement for Ordinance Authorizing The NW 79th Street Community Redevelopment Agency To Employ Staff, Agents, Other Employees And Legal Counsel

The proposed ordinance related to the NW 79th Street Community Redevelopment Agency (Agency) authorizes the Agency to employ its staff, agents, other employees and legal counsel. Additionally, it requires the County Attorney Office (CAO) to remain as the Agency's interim legal counsel until the transition is completed.

Implementation of this proposed ordinance may have a minimal fiscal impact on the County, as there will be no additional staffing costs associated with this ordinance. A thorough review of the current interlocal agreement between the Agency and the County should be conducted to further define the functions of both bodies as it relates to the day-to-day operations of the Agency and its Board.
