RESOLUTION NO. _____ R-356-26

RESOLUTION APPROVING THE CITY OF MIAMI'S
CODESIGNATION OF THAT PORTION OF NORTHWEST
38TH STREET BETWEEN NORTHWEST 17TH AVENUE AND
NORTHWEST 15TH AVENUE AS "LEE CORSO WAY"

WHEREAS, on December 11, 2025, the City of Miami (the "City") adopted Resolution No. R-25-0539, a copy of which is attached hereto and incorporated by reference, codesignating that portion of Northwest 38th Street between Northwest 17th Avenue and Northwest 15th Avenue as "Lee Corso Way"; and

WHEREAS, Lee Corso ("Mr. Corso") was born in Cicero, Illinois on August 7, 1935, to Italian immigrant parents; and

WHEREAS, at age 10, Mr. Corso moved with his family to the Allapattah neighborhood, leading to him attending Miami Jackson Senior High School where he was recognized as an "All-City" athlete in football, baseball, and basketball; and

WHEREAS, in the 1950's, Miami Jackson Senior High School, Miami Edison Senior High School, and Miami Senior High School played their home games at the legendary Orange Bowl; and

WHEREAS, in 1951, the Miami Jackson Senior High School Generals defeated the Miami Senior High School Stingarees with Mr. Corso playing as a backup quarterback and defensive back, which was his first of many defining moments in the Orange Bowl and in his career as a competitor and leader; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Corso was offered a signing bonus with the Brooklyn Dodgers as a shortstop prospect, however he chose to attend Florida State University playing both football and baseball while earning a bachelor's degree in physical education in 1957 and a master's degree in administration and supervision in 1958; and

WHEREAS, after graduating from Florida State University, Mr. Corso became the quarterbacks coach at the University of Maryland; and

WHEREAS, in 1962, Mr. Corso convinced Darryl Hill, an academically and athletically qualified football player, to transfer from the Naval Academy to the University of Maryland, making him the first African-American football player in the Atlantic Coast Conference; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Corso went on to become the head football coach at the University of Louisville (1969 to 1972), Indiana University (1973 to 1982), Northern Illinois University (1984), and in the United States Football League for the Orlando Renegades (1985); and

WHEREAS, in 1987, Mr. Corso began his broadcasting career as an analyst for ESPN as part of its Saturday "College Gameday" program, quickly becoming the signature voice of the program; and

WHEREAS, in 1993, Mr. Corso introduced his now-iconic "headgear picks" where he famously began the tradition of wearing the head of the mascot of the team he picked to win; and

WHEREAS, "College Gameday" has since broadcasted from Miami-Dade County numerous times, including for the Capital One Orange Bowl game on January 9, 2025, the University of Miami's matchup against the University of Florida on September 20, 2025, and the College Football Playoff National Championship game on January 19, 2026; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Corso's spirited personality elevated the profile of the Orange Bowl game and the greater Miami community; and

WHEREAS, in recognition of his impact on college football and sports media, Mr. Corso received the Orange Bowl Committee’s Edwin Pope Vanguard Media Award in 2012 and was inducted into the National Sports Media Association Hall of Fame in 2023; and

WHEREAS, on August 30, 2025, Mr. Corso made his final broadcasting appearance and, in turn, his final headgear pick; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Corso ended his “College Gameday” tenure with a record of 287-144 all-time in headgear picks; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Corso also attended the Boys Club of Miami, learning how influential caring adults can be in the lives of children; and

WHEREAS, in 2013, Mr. Corso was inducted into the Boys & Girls Clubs of America Hall of Fame; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Corso supports several charities, including Coaches Curing Kids’ Cancer, where he serves as an honorary chairman and national spokesperson, the Positive Coaching Alliance, which runs the Lee Corso Legacy Fund to promote positive youth sports development, and the Lee Corso Excellence Fund, which funds student-athlete scholarships; and

WHEREAS, from his beginnings as a Miami Jackson General to his beloved role on “College Gameday,” Mr. Corso has remained one of the most influential ambassadors for the City of Miami and the Orange Bowl; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Corso’s decades-long connection to South Florida helped shape the Orange Bowl’s modern media era, solidifying his place as a cultural icon of college football; and

WHEREAS, in recognition of Mr. Corso’s lifelong contributions to youth and collegiate athletics and sports broadcasting media, this Board would also like to honor Mr. Corso by approving the City’s codesignation of that portion of Northwest 38th Street between Northwest 17th Avenue and Northwest 15th Avenue as “Lee Corso Way”; and

WHEREAS, the City would like the County to install signage indicating this codesignation on County street signs and traffic signal mast arms; and

WHEREAS, that portion of Northwest 38th Street between Northwest 17th Avenue and Northwest 15th Avenue is a city-maintained road located in the City of Miami; and

WHEREAS, this codesignation is located in County Commission District 3,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS OF MIAMI-DADE COUNTY, FLORIDA, that this Board:

Section 1. Approves the City of Miami’s codesignation of that portion of Northwest 38th Street between Northwest 17th Avenue and Northwest 15th Avenue as “Lee Corso Way”.

Section 2. Directs the Clerk of the Board to transmit a certified copy of this resolution to the Mayor and City Commission of the City of Miami, the United States Postal Service, the Traffic Signals and Signs Division of the Department of Transportation and Public Works, the Development Services Division of the Regulatory and Economic Resources Department, the City of Miami Police Department, and the City of Miami Department of Fire-Rescue.

WHEREAS, Ordinance No. 14317, adopted on September 26, 2024, provides that the restrictions related to street co-designations, including the restriction on renaming named streets, contained in Section 54-137 of the Code of the City of Miami, Florida ("City Code"), may be waived by a four-fifths (4/5ths) affirmative vote of the City Commissioners, or an unanimous vote of the quorum that exists because of either abstentions or vacancies resulting from resignation, death, suspension, or physical incapacitation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMISSION OF THE CITY OF MIAMI, FLORIDA:

Section 1. The recitals and findings contained in the preamble to this Resolution are adopted by reference and incorporated as if fully set forth in this Section.

Section 2. The Miami City Commission hereby co-designates Northwest 38th Street from Northwest 17th Avenue to Northwest 15th Avenue in honor of his impact on young athletes and on the community.

Section 3. The City Manager is directed to take all necessary steps to effectuate this co-designation, including the installation of appropriate signage.

Section 4. The City Clerk is directed to transmit a certified copy of this Resolution to the Departments of Police, Fire-Rescue, and Solid Waste; the Miami-Dade County Department of Transportation and Public Works; the Miami-Dade County Commissioner of District 3; the United States Postal Service; and, if a State of Florida road, to the Florida Department of Transportation, District Six, for sign installation within the newly designated roadway.

Section 5. If any section, clause, or provision of this resolution is declared invalid, the remainder shall not be affected and shall remain in full force and effect.

Section 6. This resolution shall become effective immediately upon its adoption.
