NAME	DATE OF BIRTH	SOCIAL SECURITY	RELATIONSHIP

(c) Additions: Any addition to the individuals permitted to reside in the premises, other than natural births, requires advance written approval from the Landlord. Such approval may be granted at the discretion of the Landlord and only if the unit size is appropriate, and the new adult family member passes the Landlord's screening criteria including, but not limited to, a criminal history check. Resident agrees to wait for the Landlord's written approval before allowing additional person/s to move into the premises. This provision applies equally to all persons, including spouses, children under foster care or temporary custody, foster adults, and live-in aides.

6. Only the persons listed in Article III of this Lease are authorized to use the unit's address on their driver's license, identification card, or as their mailing address as required by (24 CFR § 966.4 (f) (2) and (3)).

ARTICLE IV

2. Disposition: At lease termination, the Landlord may choose to impose a claim on the security deposit for:
 - (a) Unpaid rent;
 - (b) The cost of repairing damage to the unit beyond normal wear and tear;
 - (c) Applicable court costs and attorney fees related to any termination or other proceeding provided Landlord prevails in the Court action; and

Upon vacating of the premises for termination of the Lease, if the Landlord does not intend to impose a claim on the security deposit, the Landlord shall have fifteen (15) days to return the security deposit.

3. Notification: Resident agrees to give thirty (30) days written notice of intent to vacate delivered personally or by certified mail to the Landlord. If the Landlord intends to impose a claim on the deposit, a written notice of intent to impose a claim on the Resident's security deposit, including the reason for imposing the claim, will be sent by certified mail to the Resident's last known mailing address within thirty (30) days after the Resident has moved out. Failure by the Resident to give the required 30 days' notice of intent to vacate will relieve the Landlord of the 30 days' notice requirement but shall not waive any right the Resident may have to the security deposit or any part of it.

ARTICLE V

Other Charges and Conditions

In addition to the payment of monthly rent, the Resident is responsible for the payment of other charges as specified in the Lease and Community Policies posted in each site management office. Other charges include: (1) any Landlord excess utility surcharges, (2) maintenance costs, (3) violation fines, (4) delinquent rent late charge, and (5) other amounts owed to Landlord. The Landlord shall provide written notice of the amount of any charge in addition to monthly rent, and that the charges are due and collectible two (2) weeks after written notice of the charges. Each written notice of charges in addition to rent must include a statement that if the Resident disagrees with the charge, they may use the grievance procedure to dispute the charge. Failure to timely request a grievance waives any objection on the part of the Resident to any charge.

1. Utilities: The Resident agrees to comply with all applicable rules and regulations issued by any Federal, State or local governmental authority regarding the regulation and conservation of utilities or fuels and not to waste or otherwise misuse the utilities provided by the Landlord.
 - (a) Landlord-Supplied Utilities, Services and Equipment: If indicated by an "X" in column (1) below, the indicated utility, service and equipment is supplied by Landlord and is included in the Resident's rent. At developments where utilities are provided by Landlord, a charge may be assessed for excess utility consumption due to the operation of air conditioning units or major Resident-supplied appliances. The schedule of any such excess utility surcharges shall be posted by the Landlord in site management offices.
 - (b) Resident-Paid Utilities, Services and Equipment: If indicated by an "X" in column (2) below, an allowance for utilities appropriate for the size and type of dwelling unit shall be established for utilities paid by the Resident directly to the utility suppliers. By initialing next to the marked items below, the Resident agrees to supply or pay the marked services and equipment. Air conditioning systems installed with individual check meters are not included in the utility allowance pursuant to federal regulations. If the utilities allowance results in a net rent credit to the Resident, the Landlord may pay the utility reimbursement jointly to the Resident and the utility supplier, or directly to the utility supplier, if the Resident and the utility supplier consent. The Landlord may change the utilities allowance at any time during the term of the Lease. Unless otherwise allowed by federal regulations, the Landlord shall give the Resident 60-day written notice of the annual revised Utility Allowance. If the Resident fails to request a grievance hearing pursuant to the grievance procedures, the Resident waives any objection they may have to the utility allowance or utility surcharge.

- (c) The Resident must pay for the utilities/services in column (2). Payments should be made directly to the appropriate utility company where applicable.
- (d) The utility accounts must be under the name of the Head of Household, Spouse or co-head.

2. Maintenance Costs: Resident shall be responsible for the cost of services or repairs that are the result of damage to the premises, common areas or grounds that are caused by the Resident, household members or guests. When the Landlord determines that maintenance service provided is not caused by normal wear and tear, the Resident shall be charged for the cost of such service, either in accordance with the Schedule of Maintenance Charges posted by the Landlord or, for work not listed on the Schedule of Maintenance Charges, based on the actual cost to the Landlord for the labor and materials needed to complete the work.
3. Fines: The Resident agrees to pay fines, different from maintenance charges, that are incurred as a result of violations to the rules and regulations as set forth in the Community Policies duly adopted and posted in each site management office.
4. Late Charges: A $20.00 late charge shall be applied to the Resident’s account if rent is delinquent. Late charges assessed hereunder shall not be due and collectible until two (2) weeks after the Landlord gives written notice of the charge. In the event the Resident fails to pay this late charge following receipt of the written notice, the Resident shall receive a 30-day written notice of termination. Failure to pay the late charge is grounds for eviction. To prevent late charges, refer to Article II (1)(a).
5. Other Amounts: As a further condition of this Lease, Resident agrees to pay all other amounts owed to Landlord such as back rent, back charges, or administrative fines pursuant to a repayment agreement or Court order, and all other amounts owed to Miami-Dade County or its agencies and departments.

Failure to pay these and other charges timely after two weeks of notice by Landlord is grounds for eviction.

ARTICLE VI

Re-examinations and Determination of Eligibility

1. In accordance with federal regulations, the status of each household will be re-examined at least once every twelve (12) months in order to re-determine rent, dwelling size and eligibility to continue occupancy. This re-examination shall be conducted in accordance with the approved statement of policies and procedures, laws and regulations, schedule of rents, income and occupancy limits.
2. The Resident agrees to promptly supply the Landlord, when requested, with accurate information about: Social Security Number, citizenship or eligible immigration status, family composition (including age and gender), income, assets, employment, handicap or disability of family members, proof of school registration and school attendance of minor children and related information necessary to determine eligibility, annual income, adjusted income and rent. Providing incomplete and inaccurate information will be considered fraud and shall constitute grounds for eviction.

3. All information supplied to the Landlord must be verified. The Resident is responsible for complying with the Landlord's request for verification. This may include signing releases for third-party sources, presenting documents for review, or providing other suitable forms of verification. Landlord may conduct a criminal background screening on the Resident or any household member during annual reexamination or whenever the Landlord deems it necessary. Landlord is final determiner as to whether the information has been adequately verified. The Resident shall be notified in writing of the effective date of any rent adjustment resulting from the reexamination.
4. If due to instability of family income or family composition, annual family income cannot be determined, a temporary determination of income and rent will be made and a special reexamination will be scheduled every 30 days, not to exceed a total of 90 days, or until stable income is established, whichever comes first. The Resident shall be notified in writing of the date of each special reexamination.
5. Reexaminations during the contemplation of, or pending, lease termination or eviction proceedings shall not constitute a waiver of the right to pursue such proceedings.

ARTICLE VII

Interim Re-examinations and Rent Adjustments

1. The Landlord must be informed of the following changes between annual re-examinations:
 - (a) If the total family income increases, the Resident must report such change in writing to the management office within ten (10) days of occurrence.
 - (b) Decreases of income in any amount lasting longer than one month may be processed at the Resident's request. Changes that result in an increase or decrease in rent must be verified in accordance with Article VI above.
 - (c) Any changes to family composition, including natural birth or adoption, must be reported in writing to the Landlord as soon as they are known, but in no event later than ten (10) days after occurrence. Changes that result in an increase or decrease in rent must be timely verified in accordance with Article VI above.
 - (d) Rent will not be adjusted when income decreases result from verified failure to participate in an economic self-sufficiency program, or failure to comply with work or community service requirements, or fraud, by any member of the family composition under any Federal, State or County law applicable to welfare or public assistance benefits.
 - (e) Rent may be adjusted between scheduled re-examinations when rent formulas or procedures change, or if utility allowances applicable to the unit are adjusted, as allowed by federal law and regulations.
2. If as a result of the rent adjustment the monthly rental payment decreases, the rent adjustment will become effective the first day of the month following the date the information is reported to the Landlord. If the rent should increase based on the family income, the adjustment will become effective the first day of the second month following the month in which the change is reported and proper verification completed.
3. If it is found that the Resident failed to timely report any changes in income or family composition as described above or provided inaccurate or incomplete information, it will be considered fraud, any of the following may occur:
 - (a) Any increase in rent which would have occurred had changes been reported in a timely manner will be made retroactive to the effective date of the change in circumstances and the Resident agrees to reimburse the Landlord for the difference between the rent they should have paid and the rent they were charged.

- (b) Any decrease in rent that would have occurred had changes been reported in a timely manner will be made effective the first day of the month following the date the change is reported to the Landlord, and will not apply retroactively.
- (c) The Resident may be subject to eviction and/or prosecution regardless of the effect on rent, if any.

ARTICLE VIII
Transfers

1. The Resident will be notified in writing once the Landlord approves a transfer. Upon signing the new Lease, the Resident is required to move within fifteen (15) calendar days. If the Resident refuses to move, the Landlord may terminate this Lease. The Resident shall be offered the opportunity for a hearing under the Landlord grievance procedure.
2. Should the Resident accept a unit with disability accessibility features, and the Resident or any member of the household does not need such features, the Resident agrees to move to a unit without such when another Resident who is disabled needs the unit with the accessibility features, within thirty (30) days of notice thereof.
3. The Landlord will consider but need not honor a Resident's request for a transfer.
4. The Landlord may reassess the Resident's eligibility for housing including, but not limited to, a criminal history check when reviewing the Resident's request for transfer.
5. Residents approved for transfer must have a current rent account with no outstanding balance and must leave the present unit in a satisfactory condition. The Resident shall be responsible for all moving expenses, except where required by federal regulations. The Resident agrees to sign a new Lease for the new unit before the move-in occurs.
