This year, you might be feeling more thankful than ever to get together with family. Being together with family and friends is also a good time to discuss important conversations like beneficiary designations.

- It is in your best interest to designate, even if you believe the selected individual would receive the proceeds by default. Designating ensures accuracy and avoids delay.

- It is important to review your designation regularly, as major life events such as marriage, divorce, the birth or adoption of a child, and death may dramatically alter your priorities.

- Beneficiary designation records are managed online, making it convenient for you to complete, review and update your designations at any time.

View or change your beneficiary online

1

To update, view or change your beneficiary, visit LifeBenefits.com and log in using the instructions provided on the previous page. Upon log in, you will be able to determine if you have a beneficiary on file, or if you need to make a designation.

2

You can select one beneficiary, or split the benefit among multiple beneficiaries, as long as the total shares equal 100 percent. If you have any questions about beneficiaries or how to designate, click on the Beneficiaries 101 link located at the top of the web page in the blue box.

3

You will need to know the first and last name of your beneficiary. If you also have their address, phone number, date of birth and/or Social Security number, this can be helpful at the time of claim to expedite payment.
Verify that all information is correct.

Sign and submit via electronic signature.

Once your designation is made, you will receive a beneficiary confirmation statement in the mail. If you need to change or update your beneficiary, changes can be made online at any time.
