

Camp Hummingbird Virtual Nature-Based Summer Camp

Camp Hummingbird attracts bright, curious and creative children with a passion for nature and the outdoors. At camp we offer a series of week-long, nature-focused virtual summer camps for ages 8 - 12. Discover the fascinating world of everything from alligators to butterflies to conch shells in this engaging online program, led and designed by the Miami Ecoadventures Team. Activities include live animals, nature lessons, and crafts. Camp Hummingbird is held over the Zoom virtual meeting platform. Programming hours are from 9:00am - 3:00pm daily.

South Florida's National Parks

Week 4: July 27—July 31

From island forts, miles from the mainland, to millions of acres of untouched wetland habitat, South Florida has some of the most unique National Parks in the country. This week we explore each one and find out what makes them so unique. Virtual field trip: Everglades National

Grow Your Own

Week 6: August 10—August 15

There might be no thing more satisfying than growing your own food. This week we talk about gardening, composting, and the fact that growing your own doesn't always involves plants. Virtual field trip: Fruit & Spice Park

The Power of Pollinators

Week 5: August 03—August 07

The natural world runs on the process of pollination. This week we get acquainted with bees, birds, butterflies, bats, and moths and explore how these pollinators have one of the most important jobs in nature. Virtual field trip: Castellow Hammock & a Butterfly Sanctuary

Look to the Sky!

Week 7: August 17—August 21

Summer is here and with it comes hot sunny days, rain, and beautiful night skies. This week we explore everything from the weather to the cosmos; all things above us in the sky and beyond.
