- Definition of Offense Group Codes:

  The National Incident Based Reporting System (NIBRS) has been a national standard for accounting for crime statistics since 1998. In January 2021, the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) designated NIBRS as the official method for documenting crime statistics in the United States. The Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE) also uses a modified version of NIBRS called Florida Incident Based Reporting System (FIBRS). FIBRS is a modified version, using NIBRS standards as a baseline.

  NIBS/FIBRS no longer use Part I and Part II Offenses, instead NIBRS/FIBRS uses Group A and Group B Offenses. The Group A offenses are the more serious crimes such as Murder, Rape, Robbery, etc. Group B offenses tend to be minor in nature, such as Curfew/Loitering/Vagrancy violations, Disorderly Conduct, Driving Under the Influence, etc.

  Currently, only Group A crimes are available in MDSO's database as the transition to the new NIBRS dashboard has not been fully implemented.
