Description of Project/Bid: This contract was established by the State of New York Office of General Services as a non-competitive contract, and later accessed by the State of Florida, Department of Management Services (DMS), as an Alternate Contract Source (ACS). This contract provides access to a proprietary LexisNexis' investigative research tool, Accurint. Accurint is a service that is designed for investigations, collections, and fraud prevention and allows user to perform various searches such as background checks, identity verification and authentication, and "Person of Interest" searches. This is made possible by integrating technology, billions of data records on individuals and businesses, and proprietary data-linking methods.
