

Miami-Dade Water and Sewer Department

Wastewater Facilities Workshop
Consent Decree Program
Pump Station Improvement Program (PSIP)

Comments

- Comments can be made online or via the comment card provided at registration
- To make your comments online go to <http://feedback.miamidade.gov/Community/se.ashx?s=57F314583D0C48BE>
- Deadline to submit comments is Friday, February 15, 2013

Table of Organization – Consent Decree Program

WASD Consent Decree Management Structure

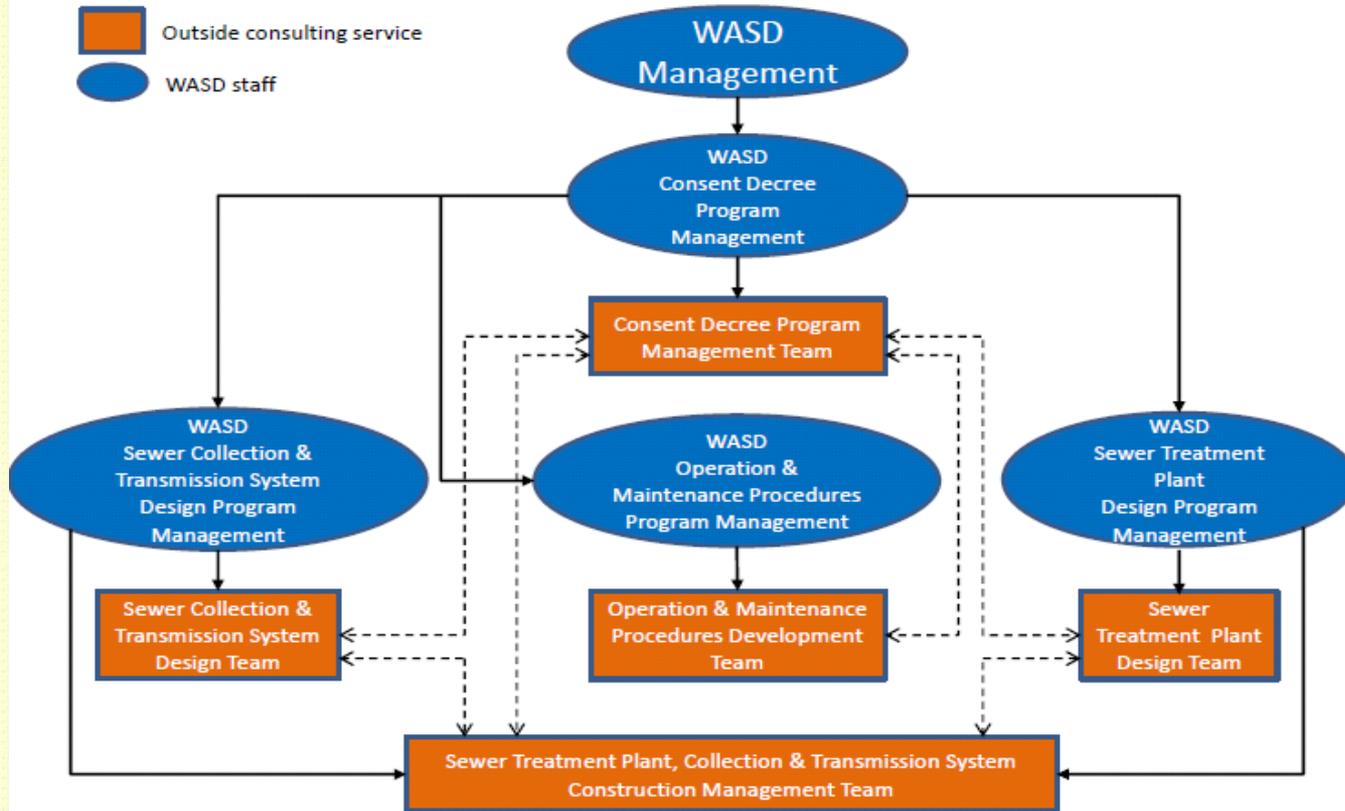

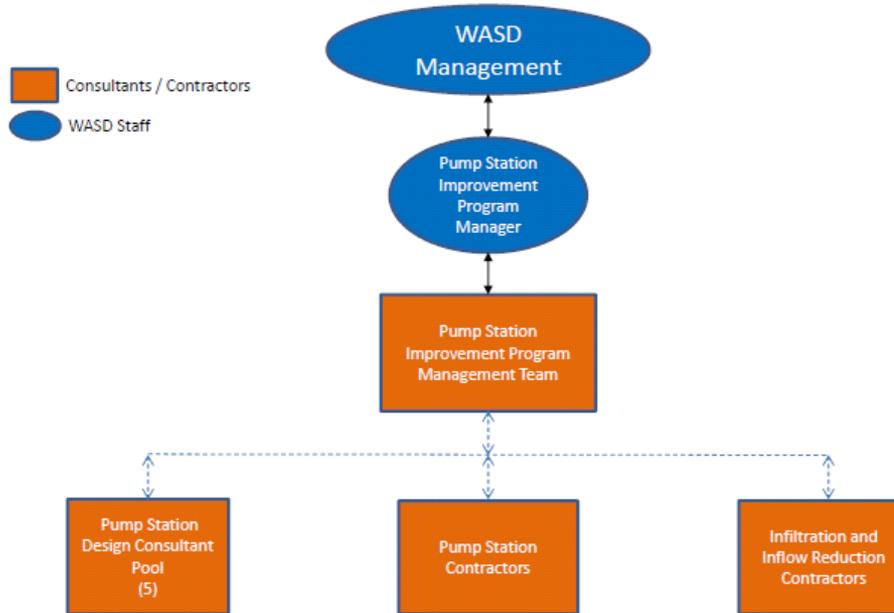

Table of Organization – Pump Station Improvement Program

WASD Pump Station Improvement Program Management Structure

Scopes of Work

Consent Decree

Program Management

- Provide planning, administration and oversight for the design and construction of the Consent Decree Capital Program
- Outline, identify and/or develop preliminary policies, procedures, and practices that establish the means and methods to meet the requirements of the Consent Decree
- Develop and manage the program master schedule and task schedules, and provide budget/cost oversight of all program elements and resources
- Provide value engineering and constructability reviews of the design documents
- Support CMOM implementation

Wastewater Treatment Plants Design

- Provide preliminary design (BODR's), detailed design, permitting and bid services for the capital program at the Wastewater Treatment Plants
- Provide Design Services during construction

Wastewater Collection and Transmission Systems Design

- Provide preliminary design (BODR's), detailed design, permitting and bid services for the capital program of the Wastewater Collection and Transmission System
- Provide design services during Construction

Capacity, Management, Operation and Maintenance (CMOM) Program

- Develop and implement the CMOM plans and programs as listed in the Draft Consent Decree

Construction Services

- Provide construction management services, including any staff to effectively manage, inspect, and administer the construction phase of the Consent Decree Wastewater Treatment Plants and Wastewater Collection and Transmission System capital program

Scopes of Work

Pump Station Improvement Program

PSIP Program Management

- Provide program and construction management
- Develop engineering reports, scopes of work and preliminarily cost estimates
- Develop and manage a program master schedule and database to track project progress

PSIP Design

- Prepare all required construction documents (engineering drawings, technical specs, etc.)
- Obtain all required permits to carry out construction
- Provide support during construction phase

Procurement and Schedule

- Program Manager for Consent Decree and PSIP to be advertised in March 2013 and awarded in Summer 2013
- Remaining contracts for Consent Decree to be advertised in Summer 2013 for award towards the end of the year

Teaming Restrictions Conflict of Interest

Comments

- Comments can be made online or via the comment card provided at registration
- To make your comments online go to <http://feedback.miamidade.gov/Community/se.ashx?s=57F314583D0C48BE>
- Deadline to submit comments is Friday, February 15, 2013

Closing Remarks