Questions

AND ANSWERS

What is Zoning?

Zoning controls the use and development of land and buildings for the health, welfare and safety of the community.

What is Lot Coverage?

It is the percentage of the overall area of the site that the building occupies (building area under roof at ground level/total lot area = lot coverage percentage).

What is Setback?

A setback is the required minimum horizontal distance between the front, sides, and rear of the lot to the building.

Can I have a barbed wire fence?

Yes, barbed wire is permitted where such barbed wire is placed on an angle extension of not more than 16 inches on top of a wall or fence at least 6 feet in height. This extension shall contain no more than 3 strands of barbed wire and shall not extend over official rights-of-way or over property under different ownership.

Can I operate a business from an open lot?

No, all permitted uses shall be conducted within completely enclosed buildings. All materials and products shall be stored within the building or within an area completely enclosed with walls which have a life expectancy of 20 years or more. Storage shall not be made above the height of the wall.

Can a modular building be used as an office?

Yes, as long as it meets the requirements for setbacks, parking, landscaping, etc.

Can parking areas allow for backing out into the street?

No, the parking area shall be so arranged that there is no backout into adjacent private property or public right-of-way.
